A Herald New Orleans special says: Another riot is imminent to-night. The $2d Colored Regiment is now being mustered out and they are very riotous, threatening the lives of their officers and to tear down the police station. The Major of the $2d to-day Informed Chief of Police Adams of the contemplated attack and asked for the closing of all the grog slope in the neighborhood. Gen. Sheridan has promised Chief Adams the ussistance of the military to preserve order, and the utmost good feeling to preserve order, and the utmost good feeling to preserve the military and civil authorities.

A dreadful tragedy occurred this morning in the Fouriteenth Ward, which resulted in the death of two Indians named Peter Fermi and Alexander Uroni. Fermi was a maker at plaster of Paris casts, in the basement of No. 115 [1] Elm street. Ureni was a journeyman mounder, and is said to have been an excellent artist. Fermi was about golting ont a plaster bust of Madause Ristort, which he was antious to have Bulsting immediately in order to take advantage of the present excitement. This morning Uren, who man at work on the model, did not reach the shop until eight o'clock. This caraged Fermi, who asked the workpinap yright he meant in by not coming there until that hour. Urent curtly answered that he would come to work when he pleased. This led to an angry retort from the employer, and the men were soon involved in a quarrel. Ferani, who was a large and powerful man, advanced toward Ureni, who was mach smaller, when the latter drew a small single-barrel revolver from his pocket and fired. The ball took effect in the left breast of Ferani. He fell to the floor, and some friends removed him to blu residence, No. 146 Ein attreet. Ureni, as soon as he fired the shot, floir to the street. He was pursued and caught, when he shot himself and instantly expired. Ferani's wound is considered mortal.

stated that he this morning paid a yisit to the President.

There is no truth in the statement that the payment of boundles provided for by the last Congress has been stopped. On the contrary, the Secretary of War in a letter stated that he instructed the Paymanter-General to commence payment at once. The Treasury Department is prepared to furnish on denand any money that may be required for the purpose.

New Orleans, Sept 22.

Officers of the S2d Colored Industry assert that this regiment was peacebly austered out yesterday; however, quite a ilotous spirit is manifested among the negroes in the city, which is owing chiefly to the disbandment of the S1s and S2d Colored Infamiry, who have just been paid off and are giving themselves up to drink and carousal. The city is well guarded.

Thirty-fur cab drivers were arrested for violating a city ordinance by making a regular stand in the augro locality to seeme patronage of megroes recently paid oif.

Vallandigham.

This notorious co-laborer of Hiester Clymer during the war, has been making stomp speeches for the Democracy in Ohio, and it is rumored he is soon coming to this Congressional district to advocate the claims of Clymer and McCalmont. In a speech at Warren, Ohio, on the Uth, he was interrupted in his seditions utterances, and we copy from the Cheinmati Enquirer, a Copperhead organ par excellence, an account of what fol head organ per excellence, an account of what followed:

When the disturbance ceased, Vallandighum said, much excited, "I have been us that insult and outrage for twenty minutes. I don't intend to submit to it any longer;" at the same time chatting his fist in the differential of the hooting, "If there are not enough Democrats in the crowd," he continued, "to take these men and clean them out, I will not speak another word." Oftes of "Move them!" "Rick them out!" Kee, areas on all sides, and a general rush was made for the disturbers; and for some minutes there was some sharp fighting, ending in a complete ront of the solder boys, as they proved to bu.

Vallandighum resumed, asyng he had never, except twice before, advised his friends to resist molestation of the meetings.

The boys, it seems, but only retired for a council of war; for in filteen minutes they columned, and renewed their offensive demonstrations.—Again they were driven back, and again they returned, during which maneuvering many were knocked down and dragged out, in many cases their own men suffering as bad as the soldlers, for no one could tell friend from foe. Only one pisted shot was fired, by when is not known.—Fortunately no one was killed.
